T.D.

Dear Conor,

I refer to our telephone conversation of this evening. I was surprised and baffled by the suggestions you were making concerning Wigan lands. Subsequent to that short exchange I contacted our solicitors to check if there is any veracity to the inferences in your story. I wish to confirm that the tenure of your questions are groundless and without substance.

Our solicitor has furthermore checked the UK company house records in respect of the company you called Avoneve. The records show that the company was a shelf company and never traded. It shows that no accounts were ever prepared or filed.

Please be advised that whatever documentation or information you are relying on is false and malicious.

Yours Sincerely,

Michael Lowry T.D.
